Edson named Mercy & Justice Coordinator

We are excited to announce that Cargill United Methodist Church has hired Dianne Edson as Mercy & Justice Coordinator. This new position is intended to help Cargill UMC fulfill its calling to serve in the community and world.

"Dianne has spoken with persistence and passion since I arrived at Cargill, calling the church to know and serve its community," Pastor Steve Scott said. "She was chosen from among a field of candidates because of her belief that our church serves an important role in helping make the world a better place."

Dianne will serve as a liaison among staff, congregation leaders and members, and the community. The objective will be to invite and equip more persons in the work of mercy and justice. (See below)

Dianne has been a part of Cargill UMC since childhood, except for the 24 years she served in the U.S. Navy. Since retiring from the Navy, she has worked in children's ministry and education at Cargill, as a substitute teacher, in administrative support at a federal agency, and for the DMV.

She currently serves as chairperson of the Cargill Church Council. Her joining the staff in mid-June will create an opening for Council chair.

What Are Mercy & Justice?

In line with Methodist teaching, acts of mercy are those that respond to immediate needs. This may take the form of direct assistance, such as providing food for those who are hungry. Acts of mercy address the symptoms of various problems.

Acts of justice are those that respond to long-term needs. They address root causes. For example, why are people in our community hungry?

To Our Guests

This is the weekend of Memorial Day, a day on the civil calendar for honoring those who have given their lives in battle.

The day is also known as Decoration Day for the custom of placing flags at the graves of the patriotic dead.

Without legitimating war, there is resonance with the gospel: "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends."

²⁰ "I ask not only on behalf of these but also on behalf of those who believe in me through their word, ²¹ that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me.

²² The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, ²³ I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.

²⁴ Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

²⁵ "Righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you, and these know that you have sent me. ²⁶ I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them and I in them."
