Today

The Now and the Not Yet

A worship service of remembrance, promise, and Holy Communion

We're glad you're here!

Cargill United Methodist Church
2000 Wesley Avenue, Janesville, WI 53545
www.CargillUMC.org 608.752.0548

To Our Guests

Today we observe All Saints Day by lifting up the names of Cargill members and loved ones who have died within the past year.

See the back page for a list of those we will honor.

There also will be an opportunity for you to silently honor someone in your heart whose name may not be listed.

We also celebrate Holy Communion today. For more, see Page 2.

About Cargill UMC

Visit the Welcome Table

For information about activities, to connect with a ministry or to volunteer, see us in the Narthex (just outside the worship area).

Refreshments on Sundays

On Sundays, we invite you to arrive early or stay late. We offer coffee and tea before services in the Narthex (outside the Sanctuary), and beverages and snacks after worship in the Fellowship Hall. Weather permitting, also feel free to visit the Garth courtyard. You may bring a covered beverage into the worship area, but please no food.

Free supervised child care in our nursery

Open during Sunday worship. For children up through age 4. In the hallway toward the West Entrance. You may bring your child before or during the service. Pagers available.

About the offering

Your financial support is vital to making ministry happen. You'll find offering plates at the end of each aisle in the worship area. Or contribute online at www.CargillUMC.org

When we worship in person

5p Saturdays, and 9a & 10:30a Sundays

Online worship

Visit www.CargillUMC.org and click "Online worship." Livestream at 9a Sundays, available anytime after. Also on Charter Ch. 994 JATV Wednesdays at 10a, 4p and 10p

About Holy Communion

In the United Methodist Church, we practice open Communion. That is, all who are baptized in any Christian tradition are welcome to receive the bread and cup as Jesus gave them to the disciples.

You are welcome to come forward as the pastor extends Jesus' invitation to "all who love God, seek to follow him, and pray to live in peace with one another." All bread served is gluten-free. Grape juice, not wine, is offered. Communion is typically celebrated on the first Sunday of the month.

1 Corinthians 15: 50-58 (excerpt)

⁵¹⁻⁵⁷ But let me tell you something wonderful, a mystery I'll probably never fully understand. We're not all going to die—but we are all going to be changed. You hear a blast to end all blasts from a trumpet, and in the time that you look up and blink your eyes—it's over. On signal from that trumpet from heaven, the dead will be up and out of their graves, beyond the reach of death, never to die again.

At the same moment and in the same way, we'll all be changed. In the resurrection scheme of things, this has to happen: everything perishable taken off the shelves and replaced by the imperishable, this mortal replaced by the immortal. Then the saying will come true: Death swallowed by triumphant Life! Who got the last word, oh, Death? Oh, Death, who's afraid of you now?

It was sin that made death so frightening and law-code guilt that gave sin its leverage, its destructive power. But now in a single victorious stroke of Life, all three—sin, guilt, death—are gone, the gift of our Master, Jesus Christ. Thank God! ⁵⁸ With all this going for us, my dear, dear friends, stand your ground. And don't hold back. Throw yourselves into the work of the Master, confident that nothing you do for him is a waste of time or effort.
