

Sidney Lingenfelter Scholarship Application Form

Cargill United Methodist Church

Scholarships are available annually thru Cargill United Methodist Church from the Sidney Lingenfelter Trust Fund for the purposes of assisting in the education of a person entering the Methodist ministry. Preference will be given to persons from the local community. Amounts available for scholarships vary based on the performance of the trust fund. Maximum allowable awards for any one person during their lifetime is $5,000.

- In the event that no qualifying applications described above are received for a given year, any available funding may be dispersed by the committee to be used for training persons in local specialized ministries at their discretion.

Therefore, the Scholarship Committee makes this application form available to those who qualify. The application deadline for 2024 is March 17th. Awarding of scholarship grants will take place in late May.
