Faith Foundations

From the first days of regular people answering Jesus' call to "follow me," there has been a clear difference between those who listened eagerly to his voice and then moved on to the next thing, and those who took the message to heart and devoted their lives to following the Master with passion so that the world might be changed.

George Barna offers a description of Each week we offer a way to help build a life of faith

the marks of followers of Jesus (in other words, disciples):

- 1) They experience a changed future through accepting Jesus as their philosophy of life.
- 2) They undergo a changed lifestyle through Christ-oriented perspectives.
- 3) They mature into a God-driven worldview and a lifelong quest for truth.— from Phil Maynard, Membership to Discipleship

Everyone, though born of God in an instant, and made holy in an instant, undoubtedly grows by slow degrees.
