Faith Foundations The Season of Easter

In the Gospel of Luke 24:13–35, two travelers walk a familiar road, speaking of the events of Jesus' death, of what has been lost, and what no longer makes sense. A stranger joins them, listens, and begins to open the story in a way they had not yet seen.

Today we gather together, many of us with our own questions. Others are carrying pieces in life that do not quite fit or hopes that have taken unexpected turns.

As we worship, consider this:

Where in your life are you longing for clarity or understanding?

Perhaps worship today is a space to trust that in Christ, something may begin to come into focus along the way.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Breakthrough Prayer

Lord, light our way to see your limitless possibilities for our lives, the Church, and your world. Help us know what you want to accomplish through us. Ignite our desire to do your will. Amen!

Scripture Focus

Luke 24:21-27

21 But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place.

22 Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, 23 and when they did not find his body there they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. 24 Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see him." 25 Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! 26 Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" 27 Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.
